

Downtown, Chinatown, Olvera Street, Little Tokyo

Fun Food for Kids lists places to eat in the areas your family will want to explore in Los Angeles. Downtown Los Angeles is the perfect place to take your kids on a food safari. Explore the endless variety of dim sum in Chinatown, stop for sushi or try BBQ in Little Tokyo, and don't leave without a visit to the oldest part of town – Olvera Street and the best Mexican food around. Let the kids splash in the watercourt at California Plaza between treats and quick eats, or pause for a snack at the Bookend's Cafe in Central Library, after you've looked at the gorgeous California murals. Wherever you find yourself, whatever you're in the mood for, here's the list of family-friendly meals and treats in downtown Los Angeles.

You can also look up fun food by categories, to choose what your family likes:

- Breakfast
- Bakery
- Juices
- Deli
- Ice cream - sweets
- Pizza and pasta
- Hamburgers and hot dogs
- Vegetarian and natural foods
- Steak and BBQ
- Chinese
- Mexican
- Japanese
- Korean
- Seafood

Each fun food listing is labeled so that you'll know right away which ones are good for snacks, where to get food to-go, where to find a quick bite or a sit-down restaurant, or where to splurge to make dining out a special occasion:

- Treats/Snacks (bakeries, juice bars, ice cream shops)
- To go (where to get things for picnics)
- Quick food (counter service, food courts)
- Simple dining (casual, family-style restaurants)
- Splurge dining (something special: you may pay extra, but you get a great view, setting or food)

When you go to a sit-down restaurant, kids' menus are a bonus – food for little kids and a price break too. Restaurants with kids' menus have a "fork and knife" icon: ☒
