

Park La Brea and Farmers Market

Fun Food for Kids lists places to eat in the areas your family will want to explore in Los Angeles. Museum hopping? There are quick food places within walking distance. For a special splurge dinner or brunch, make everyone happy at Campanile. Whatever else you do, make one stop at the Farmers Market – popular with local kids since the 1930’s. This is especially good when everyone’s feeling choosy – get lemonade and hot dogs or tempura, crepes, burritos, hamburgers or pizza, then top it off with toffee, pies, pastries, doughnuts or ice cream. Wherever you find yourself, whatever you’re in the mood for, here’s the list of family-friendly meals and treats in Los Angeles.

You can also look up fun food by categories, to choose what your family likes:

- Breakfast
- Bakery
- Deli
- Juices
- Ice cream
- Hamburgers and hot dogs
- Vegetarian and natural foods
- “Homecooking” and diners
- Pizza and pasta
- Mexican
- Fast chicken
- Steak and BBQ
- Chinese

Each fun food listing is labeled so that you’ll know right away which ones are good for snacks, where to get food to-go, where to find a quick bite or a sit-down restaurant, or where to splurge to make dining out a special occasion:

- Treats/Snacks (bakeries, juice bars, ice cream shops)
- To go (where to get things for picnics)
- Quick food (counter service, food courts)
- Simple dining (casual, family-style restaurants)
- Splurge dining (something special: you may pay extra, but you get a great view, setting or food)

When you go to a sit-down restaurant, kids’ menus are a bonus – food for little kids and a price break too. Restaurants with kids’ menus have a “fork and knife” icon: ☒
