

Fun Food for Kids lists places to eat in the areas your family will want to explore in Vancouver. The Public Market has dozens of meals and snack kiosks. Early in the morning, stop in for scones, muffins, maple syrup doughnuts and fresh squeezed juices. Just arrived at lunchtime? Sample pirogies, sausages on a bun, hamburgers and salmon burgers, sushi or pizza, then top it off with fudge (watch it being made), maple candy, cookies, pies. Or get sandwiches and fresh fruit -- the duck pond is ideal for picnics. The Kids Market has shops and eating spots especially geared to toddlers. At dinner time, you'll find seafood restaurants with patio dining, where you watch the water ferries chugging up and down False Creek. Whatever you're in the mood for, here's the lists of family-friendly meals and treats on Granville Island in Vancouver.

You can also look up fun food by categories, to choose what your family likes:

- Breakfast
- Bakery
- Deli
- Juices
- Chinese and Japanese
- Vegetarian and natural foods
- Hamburgers and hot dogs
- Steak and BBQ
- "Homecooking"
- Seafood
- Pizza - pasta
- Ice cream

Each fun food listing is labeled so that you'll know right away which ones are good for snacks, where to get food to-go, where to find a quick bite or a sit-down restaurant, or where to splurge to make dining out a special occasion:

- Treats/Snacks (bakeries, juice bars, ice cream shops)
- To go (where to get things for picnics)
- Quick food (counter service, food courts)
- Simple dining (casual, family-style restaurants)
- Splurge dining (something special: you may pay extra, but you get a great view, setting or food)

When you go to a sit-down restaurant, kids' menus are a bonus -- food for little kids and a price break too. Restaurants with kids' menus have a "fork and knife" icon: ☒
