

English Bay, Denman Street, Stanley Park

Fun Food for Kids lists places to eat in the areas your family will want to explore in Vancouver. Stanley Park has something for everyone -- grab a bite at the Pavillion en route to the Aquarium, picnic in gracious gardens or relax in a cafe sky high above the bridge. But be sure to make time for exploring eateries along Davie, Denman, and upper Robson Streets. Choose from Japanese, Vietnamese, Chinese, Italian, Pacific Northwest, specialties, or fish n' chips, hamburgers and pizza. Join the locals trekking along the seawall, then have a ice cream cone or hot dog while resting against huge driftwood logs. Wherever you find yourself, here's the list of family-friendly meals and treats in Vancouver's West End.

You can also look up fun food by categories, to choose what your family likes:

- Breakfast
- Bakery
- Deli
- Juices
- Ice cream
- Pacific Northwest - Seafood
- Pizza and pasta
- Vegetarian and natural foods
- Hamburgers and hot dogs
- Steak and BBQ
- Vietnamese
- Chinese
- Japanese
- Italian
- "Homecooking"

Each fun food listing is labeled so that you'll know right away which ones are good for snacks, where to get food to-go, where to find a quick bite or a sit-down restaurant, or where to splurge to make dining out a special occasion:

- Treats/Snacks (bakeries, juice bars, ice cream shops)
- To go (where to get things for picnics)
- Quick food (counter service, food courts)
- Simple dining (casual, family-style restaurants)
- Splurge dining (something special: you may pay extra, but you get a great view, setting or food)

When you go to a sit-down restaurant, kids' menus are a bonus – food for little kids and a price break too. Restaurants with kids' menus have a "fork and knife" icon: ☒
